

QUICK QUIZ. New Zealand.

(Answers next week)

I was born in 1937, was NZ's best known prison escaper. In my hayday, I was a folk hero. A popular song was written about me. In 1960 I was sentenced to four years prison. On May 17th 1962 I escaped and remained at large for 65 days. In 1963, me and three others escaped from Mt Eden prison. The others were soon recaptured but I remained on the run for 173 days. Escaping again in 1965 but my freedom was short lived. For all my escapes another 14 years was added on to the original four year sentence. Who am I?

Te Ata-I-Rangikaahu. Born 1931. Formerly the Maori Queen, was born in Huntly, educated at Waikato Diocesan school in Hamilton, was elected to the Maori kingship and Arikinui in 1966. She succeeded her father, Koroki te Wherowhero.

HEALTHY LIVING:

CONTROLLING YOUR WEIGHT

Why weight matters: Slightly overweight does not seem to present major danger to health. On the other hand obesity (20% over the accepted weight range for your height and age) can cause greater risks of heart disease, high blood pressure, gallstones and diabetes.
