

GREAT PEOPLE OF THE BIBLE QUIZ

In the second half of the 8th century BC, a spiritual leader emerged. He was considered by some to be the greatest of the Hebrew Prophets. His ministry spanned the reigns of three kings of Judah. It was he who foretold the coming of a messiah, or redeemer, of Israel. He was probably born before 750BC. In Jerusalem his name meant "may the Lord save".

Moments of World History

(Pre history to modern day)

New Kingdom and Late Period Egypt (1532-332 BC)

During the 500 years of the New Kingdom encompassing the 18th to 20th Dynasties, Egypt grew to become the world's strongest power having absorbed militia skills and technology from the Hyksos, Egypt became a standing army and a great empire. History then took an unexpected turn when Pharaoh Akhenaten tried to change the state's religion, angering many in the process. Once again a series of weak Pharaohs and ambitious monarchs led to Egypt's decline. Long periods of foreign control ensued before a final flowering of native Egyptian rule, known as the late period.
